To Serve the Public and Serve to Please During this Season of Business

To Pay the Debt We Owe to the patrons who favor us with their fall purchases is an honored duty and sincere determination.

To say we enjoy doing it is evident in numerous improvements coming along with new seasons.

The difficulty is to keep up to the mark in service, by hard work and constant thinking, and if possible doing more today than we did yesterday.

All the hurrahs in business sargument amount to nothing.

It is SERVICE and FACT that count. That's all!

At $14.50 to $25 Are Women's New Suits--Truly Wonderful

First, come those at $14.50, a quarter hundred of them from a manufacturer who operates largely on close margin of cost; they are much finer fabrics than usually go into suits of this price and much finer linings. One style is a fine serge with coat suggesting a Norfolk, is trimmed with silk braid and collar of velvet. Another is a poplin in black and a lighter blue. The coat with collar low or high. A third is of a novelty weave cloth with broad triple belt and straight coat.

At $25.00, one hundred of the best suits for the money that we have put out this season and there are at least a score of styles, checks, wool velour (these have lots of style); fine broadcloths with blouse coat and fur collar with braid, velvet and fur. There are serges, poplins, and gabardines and plain velour in black, green, blue and brown, and the purple shades with green or black.

Young Women! Your Suits and Your Coats

Are ready here this minute, and this week is fine for choosing.

Here Are Some Specials

New Fur Trimmed Suits $29.50—

Of Gabarine, in blue brown or green; have smart jackets in straight lines and semi-fitted effects, black fur collars and cuffs. The skirts are new and finished with belts. The jackets are usually lined and interlined.

Cape Collared Coats $19.50—

Navy blue, green or brown, are made in a new wide wing loose model with belted front; and they are lined with silk throughout with an extra heavy interlining.

New Skirts $4.95—

Pretty green and blue plaid, simple tailored, and good looking and very useful for school and college wear. Six styles of black and blue serge, poplin and gabardine, also regular and extra size to 36 waist measure.

Welworth Blouses

The standard of value in Welworth Blouses is never stationary; it is being raised continually as Welworth sales grow in volume. And they are growing here—and everywhere—because women appreciate good values—and spend their money where it brings the greatest return. Better see the pretty new models on sale today. Price $2.00.

Welworth Blouses are sold here exclusively.

Why not get the right kind of things and the right kind of ideas, in the P. S. House Furnishings Store.

Get good brushes, chamois, polishes, mops, dustless cloths, etc., and remember that a new broom doesn't sweep nearly as clean as a vacuum cleaner.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Daughters to Meet.

The King's Daughters of the First Methodist Episcopal church, will hold their meeting for October in the church parlors Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Yearly reports will be read and important business transacted. Members will please take notice.

Notice to Voters.

Mrs. Beatrice Forbes-Robertson Hale, who will make a suffrage speech tonight at the Masonic temple, has a message especially for the voters, and they are urged, to attend. Mrs. Hale is a charming and gifted speaker and presents her side of this important issue in a delightful way. Everyone is invited and a large crowd is expected to attend.

Opening Session.

The thirteenth annual session of the general chapter of West Virginia Order of the Eastern Star will begin its session at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening at the Masonic temple in West Pike street. The sessions will last for three days. All members of the local chapter are urged to attend all sessions.

Interesting Talk.

Mrs. W. Knox Livingston, of Bangor, Me., national superintendent of the department of franchise of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, gave a rousing address Sunday evening in the First Methodist Episcopal church. The large auditorium was well filled with an intelligent and interested audience which gave the closest possible attention to every word and then would have been glad to listen longer. The speaker was introduced by Mrs. S. A. Smith, president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. Those who failed to hear this splendid talk will have another chance to hear Mrs. Livingston Tuesday evening as she will speak in the United Brethren church at Stealey Heights. There will be no admission charged but a collection will be taken for the state Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

A Most Artistic Family.

Every lover of art, either dramatic or literary, will be delighted with the coming to this city of Mrs. Beatrice Forbes-Robertson Hale, of the well known English stage family. Mrs. Hale is in West Virginia at this time devoting a week to the campaign now waging for the adoption of the pending constitutional amendment granting the vote to women. She has long been a most ardent suffragist, both in this country and in England, and her voice is always heard where the fray is thickest and the fighting fiercest.

Being a daughter of the late Jan Forbes-Robertson and a niece of that great actor, Sir Johnston Forbes-Robertson, Mrs. Hale would be untrue to her distinguished ancestry if she was not deeply interested in all things that look to the advancement of democracy. Long has she aided with her voice and pen the cause of suffrage and it is only natural that she should be with West Virginia in its present campaign.

Mrs. Hale is an actress of distinction, having made her American debut in the support of Sir Henry Irving and later she became a leading member of the New theater company of New York. After the first season of this company she married and became an American citizen. She is devoted to the institutions of her adopted country and believes that all that is required to make this a perfect democracy is to remove the sex restrictions on the franchise.

Mrs. Hale will be heard in this city on the subject of woman suffrage, October 2 in the Masonic temple. Doubtless a large audience will gather to listen to this fine thinker and splendid speaker.

To Meet Tuesday.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Central Christian church will meet at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Martha Smith on Mechanic street.

Birth Announced.

Cards announcing the birth of Robert Waddell McLeod, nine pound son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McLeod, of Pittsburgh, were received by a number of local persons Monday. The son was born Saturday. Mrs. McLeod before her marriage was Miss Alice Waddell. She is a niece of Mrs. W. A. Fletcher, of this city, and made her home here with Mrs. Fletcher for a year or two. Mr. and McLeod formerly resided here.

King to Lecture.

Byron W. King, president of King's School of Oratory in Pittsburgh, will lecture at the First Baptist church next Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Mr. King's subject will be "Dreams and Visions."

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Practical Tips.

To whiten a white silken blouse which has turned yellow from wear and washing use half a cupful of vinegar in the last rinsing water (lukewarm) when the garment is being washed.

Window shades will prove a helpful means of keeping out draughts from rooms which have no doors to close. Paint the shade to match the paint in the room, so that it will not jar the nerves because of a clash in color.

When applying hair tonic to the scalp use a medicine dropper for the purpose. In this way the right amount of tonic will be used and the bottle containing the tonic will always appear clean.

HOME COMFORT

SIT down, friend, and read this through—not once but twice. Look about your home tonight. Look at the rug on the floor, at your table and the chairs. Do they FEEL just right to you?

Light up, lean back in your chair. Do you get the solid comfort you ought to get? Now, as your eye travels around, think it over. Perhaps a davenport is what the room needs, a great luxurious davenport, one of the kind that looks so expensive—but isn't. Perhaps it is a little table over there in the blank space on the further wall, with one of the new wooden vases on it. Perhaps everything is just right—except that maybe a rug with the right shade of brown will make it perfect.

Whatever it is, think it over tonight and decide what to get. You can afford it. You need it. You owe it to your folks. You know you do. Come down here tomorrow with your wife and choose what you want. Make sure tomorrow that Home means solid comfort.
